

ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE CONSENT AND DISCLOSURE POLICY

This policy describes the terms and conditions set by Capital Com SV Investments Limited and its affiliates (collectively “we” or “us”) for providing the client (“you”) with the possibility to electronically sign the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) W-series forms through Capital.com’s electronic system.

In order to provide you with this service, we need to adhere to the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act 2000 (the “E-Sign Act”). As such, we are required by law to provide you with certain information (disclosures) and receive your prior consent to use electronic records and signatures in relation to the IRS forms.

Therefore, before you sign the IRS forms via our electronic system, you must review and consent to the terms and disclosures outlined below.

1. Consent to Electronic Communication and Use of Electronic Signature

By agreeing to the terms and conditions herein described, you confirm your consent to:

- a) receive communication electronically in relation to your IRS related forms and all related communications, notices and documentation;
- b) the use of electronic signatures as valid evidence of your consent;
- c) the submission of your signature on the Capital.com website and consequently, the treatment of your signature is a valid, conscious and legally binding digital signature on the IRS forms.

Your authorisation and consent will only apply to your IRS forms and all related communications, notices, information, and related documentation.

2. Decline/Withdrawal of Consent

You can decide at any time to decline or withdraw your consent by contacting our Customer Support team. No extra fees shall apply by your decision to withdraw your consent.

The result of declining consent or withdrawal of consent thereof, will mean that you will be required to print, complete and provide us with a wet signature on the paper version of the applicable form, which should be sent to the attention of our customer support department. Please note this will be a slower process of us obtaining the IRS forms and any associated fees shall be borne by you.

3. Access to Electronic/Paper Copies

Once you have electronically signed and submitted the IRS forms, you can request an electronic copy of the signed form from our Customer Support team who will provide you with this.

You may also request from us the electronic copy of the IRS form signed by you at any time. No extra fees shall apply due to your request to be provided with an electronic copy of the IRS form signed by you.

If, however, you wish to request a paper copy of the IRS form, please contact our Customer Support for further assistance in accordance with section 2 herein.

4. Hardware and Software requirements

You understand and acknowledge that in order for us to provide you with the option to electronically access and sign the IRS form, you must have access to the following:

- A computer or a mobile device;
- Access to the internet;
- A current, compatible web browser;
- A valid email account and access to that account;
- If you wish to store or print any communications or documents, a device capable of storing and printing such communications or documents .

If any change is made to the above hardware and software requirements, we will notify you of the same.

5. Personal Data

Your personal data is safeguarded by us in line with the Privacy Policy. You may refer to our Privacy Policy by accessing the document in our website or our mobile application.

6. Updating Contact Information

It is your responsibility to keep your contact information, including your primary email address current and updated. You can update your contact information by contacting our Customer Support team.

7. Representations

By clicking "Submit" you hereby agree to have carefully read the information provided herein regarding your positive consent to electronic access and electronic signing of the IRS documentation. You also agree and acknowledge that the electronic delivery and electronic signing of the IRS documents constitute a legal and valid way of transacting business and that you fully understand the conditions and disclosures herein.
