PART 3. SHARE DEALING SERVICES

3.1. We shall provide an execution-only Share Dealing Service. This Agreement sets out the basis on which we will receive and handle Instructions to Deal from you, enter into Transactions on your behalf and hold Instruments and money on your behalf. This Agreement governs each Instruction to Deal issued and each Transaction entered into and all Instruments and money held by us on your behalf on or after this Agreement comes into effect. Except as indicated in the Statement we send to you, we will act on your behalf to execute your Instructions to Deal as principal or a matched principal basis.

3.2. You will provide us with Instructions to Deal as principal and not as an agent for any undisclosed person. This means that unless we have otherwise agreed in writing, we will treat you as our client for all purposes and you will be responsible for performing your obligations under each Instruction to Deal issued by you or on your behalf and each Transaction entered into by us on your behalf.

3.3. Share Dealing Service will be carried out by us on a non-advised basis and we are not providing you with any investment, legal, regulatory or other form of advice. You may wish to seek independent advice in relation to any Transaction you propose to Enter into under this Agreement. You are required to rely on your own judgement in entering into, or refraining from, providing us with an Instruction to Deal or from entering into, or refraining from entering into, a Transaction. You are not entitled to ask us to provide you with investment advice relating to an Instrument, Instruction to Deal or a Transaction or to make any statement of opinion to encourage you to enter into a particular Transaction.

3.4. You will enter into a Transaction by 'buying' or 'selling'. In this Agreement a Transaction that is entered into by 'buying' is referred to as a 'Buy'; a Transaction that is entered into by 'selling' is referred to as a 'Sell'. We will provide you with the Buy and Sell prices for Instruments in the Underlying Market.

3.5. Certain Instruments, such as Shares, are available to trade as Fractional shares. A fractional share is when you own less than one whole share of a company. Fractional shares allow you to purchase stocks based on the amount you want to invest, so you may end up with a fraction of a share, a whole share, or more than one share. For such Instruments, Buy will be the amount of money you instructed us to use for buying a Fractional share , whereas Sell will be the specified number of fractional shares you have instructed us to sell.

Other Transactions must always be made for a specified number of Instruments.

If an Instruction to Deal is accepted, we will confirm to you whether a Transaction results in the Underlying Market, being the partial or full fill of your Instruction to Deal. We will attempt to execute all eligible Instructions to Deal as soon as reasonably practicable. There is no guarantee that your Instruction to Deal will be filled in full or in part in the Underlying Market. Where a delay occurs because we are unable to interact with the relevant Underlying Market for any reason, we will attempt to execute the Instruction to Deal as soon as reasonably practicable. You acknowledge and accept that the market price of any Instrument may have moved during the time between our receipt and acceptance of your Instruction to Deal and our attempt to execute your Instruction to Deal. In these circumstances, the third party who has provided the quotation to us is not obliged to honour the indicative price you have received and, if that is the case, we may reject your Instruction to Deal. Such movements in price may be in your favour or against you. For more information regarding the execution of Transactions please also refer to our Order Execution Policy.

3.6. Unless we agree otherwise, all sums payable by you are due immediately and must be paid on entering into the Transaction. If you Buy an Instrument, the consideration for the Transaction and, in addition, all applicable Charges and Taxes to that Transaction will be your responsibility and will be deducted from your account and held by us pending settlement. Monies deducted will not be treated as client money on the day of expected settlement. If settlement does not occur on the day of expected settlement the monies will be treated as client money. It is your responsibility to ensure at all times that sufficient cleared funds are on your account to satisfy settlement of any Transaction and all Charges and Taxes associated with that Transaction.

If you Sell an Instrument, the consideration for the Transaction less all applicable Charges and Taxes to that Transaction will be available on your account for reinvestment but will be unable to be withdrawn from your account until the Transaction has settled. It is your responsibility to ensure at all times that sufficient cleared funds are on your account to satisfy settlement of any Transaction and all Commission, Charges and Taxes associated with that Transaction.

If we allow you to trade in Instruments and then identify you as a US person, we may close any open positions you may hold and then block or close your account.

4.6. We will ask you to sign the relevant US tax form before we accept an Instruction to Deal from you to Buy an Instrument in relation to Shares (Instruments) listed in the US. If you have not previously provided us with a valid US tax form and you already hold US Shares, we will ask you to complete the relevant US tax form. If you do not return the signed and completed US tax form before the date we specify (usually 30 days), we reserve the right to sell your US Shares. If we accept an Order and then an event takes place which means that it is no longer reasonable for us to act on that Order, we will be entitled to disregard or cancel your Order. If we disregard or cancel your Order then we shall not have any liability to you as a result of such action and we shall not re-enter that Order. Examples include but are not limited to:

PART 6. FEES AND COMMISSIONS

6.1. Before you begin to issue the Instructions to Deal, we will take all reasonable steps to provide you with an explanation of all Fees and Commission and/or Charges and/or other fees for which you might be liable. These costs may affect your trading net profits (if any) or could increase your losses.

6.2. The Company will quote to clients two prices, the "ASK" at which clients can buy a respective Instrument, and the "BID" at which clients can sell a respective Instrument. The difference between the ASK and the BID prices is called the "SPREAD". The SPREAD is the only trading cost that the user has to pay for the trading part of the Electronic Services. The Company reserves the right to close Inactive Accounts at its sole discretion. In this case all the remaining funds held on the Inactive Account will be refunded to the payment method used for depositing.

Any Account that is not an Inactive Account shall be classified by the Company as an active account ("Active Account").

PART 7. PLACING ORDERS

7.1. We will treat each Order you place for the Services as an offer to purchase Services under this Agreement. We may, in our reasonable discretion, refuse to accept any Order or Instruction from you or we may accept your Order subject to certain conditions or we may, acting reasonably, refuse to proceed with an Order that we have accepted (including but not limited to when we are not able to execute your Order due to restrictions of Exchanges, executing brokers or other third parties or due to unusual market conditions). If we do this, we will notify you in writing unless we are prevented from doing so by law.

7.2. By placing an Order for the purchase of Instruments, you agree that you will have sufficient funds in your account on the date when you are required to make the payment to settle the trade. When placing an order, if it becomes pending, the funds available in the Client's Account (the blocked funds cannot be used for other Orders, until the pending ones are executed or cancelled).

7.3. You may give us Instructions to automatically buy or sell Instruments in the market at a price predetermined by you (a "Limit Order"). In the case of a Limit Order to sell, your order will be executed if the price obtainable in the market is equal to or higher than the price you have set. In the case of a Limit Order to buy, your Order will be executed if the price obtainable in the market is equal to or lower than the price you have set. The order will be executed immediately at the best available market price (the price might change before execution, especially with less liquid financial instruments).

7.4. Market conditions can affect the time it takes to execute Limit Orders, Stop Orders and Market Orders and all orders are executed in due turn and in accordance with Order Execution Policy.

Market conditions can cause temporary delays to the execution of Orders. It is your obligation to make sure that any earlier pending Order(s) is/are cancelled before placing a new Order in the same Instrument. We do not accept any liability for any actual or potential loss you may suffer if this occurs.

7.5. If you place a Limit Order or Stop Order in respect of an Instrument of which trading is suspended or has a corporate event before execution or if your account is suspended we may, but are not required to, cancel the pending Order.

7.6. A working order is a general term for opening either a stop or limit order. This allows the Client to buy or sell a stock once it meets the stop price predetermined by the Client (after the stock hits the Client's stop price, the Stop Order becomes a Market Order and is executed at the best price available).

7.7. A Stop Market Order is an instruction to execute a trade when a price level (the Stop Market Level) is reached that is equal to or worse than the current best price (a Stop Market Order). When the Stop Market level is reached, the Stop Market Order will trigger and a Market Order will be sent to execute the trade at the best price available at the time the Order is placed for the quantity you wish to buy or sell. Your execution price may be better or worse than the Stop Market Level you set depending on the liquidity available and the size of your Order. Stop Market Orders can be placed and/or cancelled at any time, even when the market is closed. In order to amend a Stop Market Order, you would need to cancel the existing one and place a new Stop Market Order provided the market conditions allow that. Stop Market Orders can be used to open or close a trade and can be Good For Day (GFD) or Good Til Cancelled (GTC). This means that for "GFD" Stop Market Orders any portion of the Stop Market Order which has not been executed during the trading day in which the Order was placed is automatically cancelled at the end of that trading day. It may be the case that your Stop

Market Order could be partially executed if there is insufficient liquidity to cover all of your Order at the time your Stop Market Order is triggered. A "GTC" Stop Market Order would remain a working order until you choose to cancel it, if it is cancelled because you are on a margin call, or your Order is filled and becomes a position. Take Profit and Stop Loss Orders attached to Stop Market Orders will be set at a specified level away from the worst execution price received (e.g. 50 points away from the highest Offer price for a Long Market Order). Your Take Profit and Stop Loss Orders will not be set at a level relative to the volume weighted average opening price of your Order.

7.8. Once accepted by us, your Order cannot be amended or cancelled by you, unless, before the execution of a particular Order, we have confirmed to you that we have had to make an amendment or cancel your Order due to market circumstances, or unless otherwise agreed by the Company.

7.9. When carrying out your Order, we may incur additional reasonable expenses and we are unable to contact you to tell you about these after reasonable efforts to do so. You accept that we may proceed to execute your Order and incur those expenses which will then be payable by you.

7.10. For each Transaction, you shall receive a quote from the Trading Platform. The quote shall only be valid until replaced by a new one, which shall happen automatically on the Trading Platform.

7.11. You accept that some small and micro-cap shares trade on highly illiquid markets, or by way of an auction or other non-standard bidding process, which may cause delays in executing Orders in such Financial Instruments. In these circumstances you agree that CAPITAL.COM will process your Order as soon as is reasonably possible. CAPITAL.COM will not be liable for any financial losses, perceived or actual, that you may suffer as a result of these delays.

7.12. At our sole discretion we may introduce or amend the minimum or maximum size of any Order in any Instrument. CAPITAL.COM will exercise the best efforts to provide clients with the possibility to close the Orders, which were affected and to notify clients of any such restrictions.

7.13. PART 11. PROVISION OF INFORMATION, VOTING RIGHTS, INTEREST DIVIDENDS AND CORPORATE EVENTS

11.1. We are not obliged to but we may arrange for you to receive the report, accounts and other information issued by a company. We are not obliged to notify you of or arrange attendance at any annual general meetings or extraordinary general meetings applicable to your Instruments, and/or arrange the exercise of any voting rights attaching to your Instruments we hold on your behalf or transferred to us on your behalf, whether exercisable at an annual general meeting or otherwise. We are also not obliged to inform you of any class action or group litigation that is being proposed or taken concerning Instruments that we are holding on your behalf.

11.2. We will be responsible for claiming and receiving dividends, interest payments and other income payments accruing to your Instruments we hold on your behalf. We may, but are not obliged to, offer you any other rights or special offers that are made available to holders of Instruments.

As we will hold your Instruments in one or more pooled accounts, you may receive dividends or distributions net of applicable taxes which have been paid or withheld at rates that are less beneficial than those that might apply if the Instruments were held in your own name or not pooled.

11.3. A corporate event is something which will bring about a change to the Instruments you hold (such as but not limited to share consolidation or share split, reorganisations, mergers, dividends distributions, etc). Corporate events can be subject to immediate changes without notice. You accept that any corporate event can take place at any time. You acknowledge and accept that these changes are beyond CAPITAL.COM control, who will not be liable for any financial losses that may occur as a result of these delays.

If a corporate event impacts a Instrument in your account, we will use reasonable endeavours to adjust the Instruments in your account in a way that is fair and which aligns with market practice, depending on the circumstances of each event and according to our reasonable discretion, although we are not obliged to do this. Adjustments may include changing the price or quantity of Instruments in your account, to reflect the economic equivalent of such rights.

In accordance with this agreement with the Company in case of stock split the following steps might be applied:

- the Company may be unable to apply the split to fractional investments;
- because of step 1 CAPITAL.COM may offer to pay the Client a cash equivalent of holding at the time of the stock split as an alternative, which may result in the Client no longer holding shares in the affected instrument;
- The Company has no obligation to obtain the Client's consent prior to taking the action in accordance with step 2

Notwithstanding above, we reserve the right to close out any open positions impacted by a corporate event (including but not limited delistings and insolvency) in a fair way and taking into account the treatment we may receive from Exchange or Underlying Market or our counterparty and/or any relevant third party. In this respect we may make any required adjustment (price, quantity or any other adjustment) resulting from the corporate event as may be applicable. We may close out open positions prior to or following such corporate events at our sole discretion.

11.4. If you are holding Instruments, such as shares, which grant you the right to receive a dividend or interest payment from a company, provided that you have held such shares prior to and on the relevant ex dividend date, we will pay this money into your account on receipt by us. We may deduct from this payment any applicable tax however it will be your responsibility to satisfy these liabilities if we did not make such deduction.

11.5. We will reflect a corporate event on your account as soon as practicable after we have received confirmation that the corporate event has been completed from our custodians.

11.6. Adjustment of Instruments in your account after a corporate event may create tax liabilities for you. We may deduct tax when making adjustments.

11.7. Where a Corporate Event results in a fractional entitlement to part of a Instrument, we will use reasonable endeavours to aggregate those fractional entitlements, and sell those fractional Instrument and credit your account with a cash value which may be subject to certain fees and charges, but we are not obliged to do this.

If you are holding certain Instruments, such as Fractional shares, we will not be able to apply some Corporate Events (such as but not limited to share split, reorganisations) to your Fractional shares. This will result in the sale of such your Instruments by us and credit your account with a cash value which may be subject to certain fees and charges.

Where Corporate Events affect some but not all Instruments held in a pooled account, we shall allocate the Instruments which are affected to relevant clients in a fair and equitable manner as we reasonably consider is appropriate.

PART 12. CLIENTS' MONEY

12.1. Any money held on your behalf by us that qualifies as client money for the purposes of the Applicable Regulations, in particular, CySEC's Rules on Safeguarding of Financial Instruments and Funds belonging to the clients ("CySEC's Rules") will be dealt with in accordance with those rules and held and safeguarded in a segregated bank account alongside the money of our other clients. The following steps have been taken by the Company in order to ensure the protection of Clients' financial instruments or funds:

12.1.1. Segregation: As per the provisions of this Agreement funds belonging to the client that will be used for trading purposes will be kept in accounts with credit institution(s) used to accept only client's funds and as such will be held segregated from the Company's own funds.

12.1.2. Investor Compensation Fund: The Company being a member of the Investors Compensation Fund (hereinafter "the Fund") provides the Client, if is being categorized as retail client, with the security of receiving a compensation from the Fund, for any claims arising from the malfunction on behalf of the Company or if the Company fails to fulfil its obligations regardless of whether that obligation arise from a breach of applicable law or regulations, the Agreement or from any wrongdoing by the Company. For more details in regard to the Fund and the conditions which apply please refer to the Investor Compensation Fund Policy.

12.1.3. Due diligence measures: The Company has the obligation to exercise all due skill, care and diligence in selection, appointment and periodic review of the credit institution(s) where Clients' funds are placed. The Company's due diligence measures have been designed in such a manner so as to ensure that expertise and market reputation of such institutions are taken into consideration. We will not be responsible for any acts, omission or default of the third party bank.

12.1.4. The Company may hold Clients' funds in omnibus accounts with third party financial and credit institutions. An omnibus account means that your funds will be kept in a pooled account with money belonging to other clients in a segregated account. Hence, the Client is warned that there is a link of loss emanating from the use of omnibus accounts in financial or credit institutions. In general, in case of default or insolvency of the Company, no single client will have a claim against a specific sum in a specific account. Omnibus accounts may also hold other types of risks including legal risk, haircut risk, liquidation risk, third party and others risks. By accepting the Terms and by establishing contractual relationships with us, you expressly provide your consent for maintaining your funds in an omnibus account.

12.1.5. The Company may transfer Clients funds to the Company according to the Clients consent and acceptance of the terms and conditions. By accepting the terms and conditions the client acknowledges and agrees with the fact that the Company is subject to specific regulation and supervision regarding the safekeeping of financial instruments and funds held for clients and that the Company is subject to local specific regulation and supervision.

12.2. You agree that we will not pay you interest on any client money held by us.

12.3. In the event that there has been no movement on your account balance for a period of at least six years and we are unable to trace you despite having taken reasonable steps to do so, you agree that we may cease to treat your money as client money.

12.4. Where appropriate, you authorise us to allow another person such as an Exchange, clearing house or intermediate broker to hold or control your client money for the purposes of your Transactions on your behalf through or with that other person.

12.5. In the event of our failure (for example due to insolvency), any money held in a client money account by third parties will be segregated from our other assets and will not be available to our creditors. However, in the event of failure (for example due to the insolvency) of a third party, as your client money will be held with other customers' money in a pooled client money account, in the event that the third party bank holding the money defaults and there is a shortfall, you will share proportionately in that shortfall with other creditors of the bank where your client money is deposited.

12.6. We may hold client money in a client bank account located in a jurisdiction outside Cyprus. The legal and regulatory regime applying to any such bank will be different from that of Cyprus and in the event of the insolvency or any other equivalent failure of that bank, your money may be treated differently from the treatment which would apply if the money was held with a bank in Cyprus.

12.7. Your money will cease to be client money when it is paid to you or to one of your duly authorised representatives; or paid to a third party on your instructions, or paid to us when money is due and payable to us.

12.8. According to CySEC's Rules we will take all the necessary steps to ensure that the clients' funds are safeguarded. Specifically, we will:

(a) introduce adequate organisational arrangements to minimise the risk of the loss or diminution of client funds, or of rights in connection with those funds, as a result of misuse of funds, fraud, poor administration, inadequate record-keeping or negligence;

(b) maintain records and accounts enabling us at any time and without undue delay to distinguish funds held for one client from funds held for any other client and from our own funds;

(c) maintain records and accounts in a way that ensures their accuracy and correspondence to the funds held for our clients and that they may be used as an audit trail;

(d) introduce arrangements to ensure that clients' funds are safeguarded in the case of insolvency, etc.

PART 13. CLIENTS' ASSETS

13.1. You give us Instruction to hold any Instrument bought on your behalf until we receive further instructions from you to sell that financial Instrument, or transfer it into your own name (as soon as it becomes available). We will hold your Instruments on your behalf in accordance with the CySEC's Directive DI87-01 ("Directive" as appropriate).

13.2. We may, subject to the CySEC's Directive, appoint any other third party to hold your Financial Instruments. We will exercise reasonable skill and care in the selection, appointment and periodic review of such third parties but we are not liable for their acts, omissions, insolvency or dissolution. Any discrepancy in terms of client assets and any resulting shortfall will be dealt with in accordance with the CySEC Client Assets Rules.

13.3. Detailed records of all your Instruments and assets held by us will be kept at all times to show that your Instruments are held on your behalf, for your benefit and do not belong to us or any sub-custodian.

13.4. Instruments purchased by us on your behalf or transferred to us will be registered in the name of a nominee company or our name or a sub-custodian. We will be responsible and liable for our nominee to the same extent as for our own acts, including losses arising from fraud, wilful default or negligence.

13.5. Whenever your Instruments are registered in the name of a Nominee company nominated by us, that Nominee will hold them on trust for you. This means that you are the beneficial owner of the Instruments. Any Instruments held by a Nominee will be held in an omnibus account.

13.6. Your Instruments will be registered in the same name as those of other clients (pooled together with other clients' Instruments in an omnibus co-mingled custody account, like with like). This means that Instruments will not necessarily be immediately identifiable by way of separate certificates. If we or our third-party nominee were to become insolvent there may be delays in identifying individual assets, and possibly an increased risk of loss if there should be a shortfall because additional time will be needed to identify the assets held for specific clients. In addition, in the event of an unreconciled shortfall caused by the default of a custodian, you may share proportionately in that shortfall.

13.7. You authorise us and any custodian or sub-custodian to hold or transfer Instruments (or entitlements to them) to a securities depository, clearing or settlement system. Instruments that cannot be settled through a central securities depository system may be held overseas by a third-party (including custodian, sub-custodian, registrar, bank, intermediate broker, or settlement agent) in the name of CAPITAL.COM or a third-party nominee.

13.8. You agree that because of the nature of applicable laws or market practices in certain overseas jurisdictions, we may decide that it is in your best interest for your Instruments held with us to be registered or recorded in our name or in the name of the person who is a custodian for the purposes of the CySEC Rules, and if it is not feasible for us to do this, then:

- your Instruments may be registered or recorded in the name of the firm or custodian as the case may be;
- your Instruments may not be segregated and separately identifiable from the Instruments of the firm or custodian in whose name your Instruments are registered; and
- As a consequence, in the event of a failure, your Instruments may not be as well protected from claims made on behalf of our general creditors. You should note that when we arrange for a third-party to hold your Instruments overseas there may be different settlement, legal and regulatory requirements than those applied in CySEC.

13.9. You will not be entitled to any interest in respect of Instruments held by us as custodian and any interest will be retained by us.

13.10. In the event that we have not received instructions from you in relation to any of the Instruments held in your account (e.g. to purchase, sell or move the assets) for a period of at least twelve years (notwithstanding any receipts of dividends or interest or similar items and irrespective of any movement of your account balance) and we are unable to trace you despite having taken reasonable steps to do so, you agree that we may cease to treat your assets as client assets.

13.11. The Company will not facilitate the transfer of Investments to another firm. The Investments held in the Client's account will need to be liquidated (it may result in additional charges imposed by third parties) and cash can be transferred to another firm (a similar rule applies to the Client's Investments held with another firm, if it is necessary to transfer them in favor of the Client's Account within the Platform). Investments cannot be put into a certificate form and mailed to you.

PART 14. SETTLEMENT

14.1. All Deals transacted between us will be carried out in accordance with the standard settlement practices and/or market rules of the relevant exchanges. Where available, we use central securities depositories for the settlement of the applicable Instruments. The charges and rates we quote are for Instruments settled by the applicable central securities depository. If an Instrument ceases to be able to be settled through the applicable central securities depository, you accept that we may have to use alternative dealing facilities to Buy or Sell that Instrument and/ or levy an increased charge for Buying or Selling that Instrument.

14.2. Transactions in European Shares are currently settled on a T+2 basis (meaning that the Transaction settles with the applicable Underlying Market two business days after it is made). Most worldwide shares settle on either a T+2 or a T+3 basis. Shares dealt on any settlement date greater than T+3 may obtain a worse price than those dealt on a T+3 settlement. We cannot usually accommodate deals for extended settlement beyond a T+10 basis.

14.3. The settlement date cannot be changed once you offer to enter into a Transaction.

14.4. You agree that we may settle transactions and, therefore the transfer of securities may happen after payment has been made ("Delivery Versus Payment basis") and in entering into this Agreement, you agree that we may at our discretion use the Delivery Versus Payment exemption as permitted by the Applicable Regulations.

14.5. We are not responsible for any delay in the settlement of a Transaction resulting from circumstances beyond our control, or the failure of any other person or party (including you) to perform all necessary steps to enable completion on the settlement date. Our obligation is only to pass on to you, or to credit to your account, such deliverable documents or sale proceeds (as the case may be) as we actually receive. If you are dealing in Instruments that are not settled through a central securities depository system (i.e., residuals), settlement delays are likely to occur.

14.6. We may refuse to allow a withdrawal on any account that you have with us if it would leave insufficient funds in the account to pay for any unsettled Transactions. When you make payment into your account and then make a withdrawal shortly afterwards, we reserve the right to delay settlement for up to eight business days to ensure your payment has cleared.

14.7. If you Sell an Instrument, the consideration for the Transaction less Commission and all applicable Charges and/or Taxes for that Transaction will be available on your account for reinvestment prior to settlement and your account will reflect this. However, you will be unable to withdraw this sum from your account until the Transaction has settled. Should the transaction fail to settle, we may reverse the Transaction, return any Commission and all applicable Charges and Taxes for that Transaction and cancel the credit of any cash to your account and amend your account to reflect the same.
